The period shall be reckoned as per the delivery schedule indicated in Annexure-B and the supply position will be intimated to this office. The supplier shall ensure that the consignee wise materials in the purchase order shall be supplied in one lot before payments are effected.
3. As per clause 16.1 of Section-III of tender, the date of delivery of the stores stipulated in the acceptance of the tender should be deemed to be the essence of the contract and delivery must be completed not later than the dates specified therein. Extension will not be given except in exceptional circumstances. Should, however, deliveries be made after expiry of the contracted delivery period, without prior concurrence of the purchaser and be accepted by the consignee, such delivery will not deprive the purchaser of his right to recover liquidated damage (as per clause 16.2 of Section-III of the tender). However, when supply is made within 21 days of the contracted original delivery period, the consignee may accept the stores and in such cases the provision of clause 16.2 will not apply.
4.As per clause 16.2 of Section-III of the tender,
(i) Should the supplier fails to deliver the stores or any consignment there of within the period prescribed and agreed for delivery, the purchaser, without prejudice to other remedies available to the shall be entitled to recover, as agreed liquidated damages for breach of contract, a sum equivalent to 0.5% of the value of the delayed supply and/or undelivered material/supply for each week of delay or part there of for a period up to 10(TEN) weeks, and there after at the rate of 0.7% of the value of the delayed supply and /or undelivered material/supply for each week of delay or part there of for another TEN weeks of delay.

(ii) DP Extension beyond twenty weeks would not be generally allowed. The extension beyond twenty weeks may be decided in most exceptional circumstances on case to case basis, by the CGMP STP.

(iii) In the case of package supply/turn key projects, when the delayed portion of the supply materially hampers installation and commissioning of the systems, LD charges shall be levied as above on the total value of the concerned package of the purchase order.

(iv) Quantum of liquidated damages assessed and levied by the purchaser and decision of the purchaser there on shall be final and binding on the supplier, further the same shall not be challenged by the supplier either before arbitration tribunal or before the court. The same shall stand specifically excluded from the purview of the arbitration clause, as such shall not be referable to arbitration. However, when supply is made within 21 days of QA clearance in the extended delivery period, and the goods were despatched within this delivery period, the consignee may accept the stores and in such cases the LD shall be levied up to the date of dispatch after QA clearance only.

(v) The total value of the liquidated damages as per above sub-clauses shall be limited to a maximum of 12%(Twelve percent) i.e. LD shall be levied up to 20 weeks only as per provision at para (i). Quantum of Liquidated Damages assessed and levied by the Purchaser shall be final and not challengeable by the Supplier.

5. BSNL reserves the right to cancel Purchase Order if the agreed delivery schedule is not adhered to by the manufacturer. Any loss arising out of such delays in the supply of the materials shall be on the supplier account.

6. Delay by the Supplier in the performance of his delivery obligations shall render the Supplier liable to any or all of the following penal actions: forfeiture of his performance security, imposition of liquidated damages and/or termination of the contract.

7. If at any time during the performance of the contract, the supplier encounters condition impeding timely delivery of the goods and performance of service, the Supplier shall promptly notify to the Purchaser in writing the fact of the delay, its likely duration and its cause(s). As soon as practicable after receipt of the supplier's notice, the Purchaser shall evaluate the situation and may at its discretion extend the period for performance of the contract as deemed fit subject to furnishing of additional performance security by the supplier @ 5% of the value of the remaining quantity yet to be supplied.

4. Further, if at any time during the contract
- a. It comes to the notice of the Purchaser regarding reduction of price for the same or similar equipment/service, and /or
  - b. The prices received in a new tender for the same or similar equipment/services are less than the prices chargeable under the contract, the purchaser for the purpose of delivery period extension, if any, will determine and intimate the new price, taking into account various related aspects such as quantity, geographical locations etc, and the date of its effect for the balance quantity/service to the vendor. In case the vendor does not accept the new price to be made available during the extended delivery period and the date of its effect, the purchaser shall have the right to terminate the contract without accepting any further supplies. The termination of the contract shall be at the risk and responsibility of the supplier and the purchaser reserves the right to purchase the balance-unsupplied quantity/service at the risk and cost of the defaulting vendor besides considering the forfeiture of his performance security.

- a. The vendor while applying for extension of time for delivery of equipment/service, if any, shall have to provide an undertaking as " We have not reduced the sale price, and/offered to sell the same or similar equipment/service to any person/organization including Department of Central/State Government or any Central/State PSU at a price lower than the price chargeable under the contract for scheduled delivery period.
- b. In case under taking as in clause.a above is not applicable, the vendor will give the details of prices, the name(s) of purchaser, quantity etc. to the purchaser, while applying extension of delivery period.
